Description

The HondaVersaTool Cultivatorattachment makes tilling, aerating and cultivating soil easy. A tine width of 170mm makes the cultivation of garden plots and lawns simple and stress-free. You're also offered added protection through the inclusion of a sturdy rotary cover, separating you from the tines. Of course, it wouldn't be a Honda if it didn't come with an ergonomic design. Nobody wants a bad back after a good, solid day's work!Perfect for Gardening

A common application for the HondaVersaTool Cultivatoris to use it in the veggie patch. No matter how dry or wet your soil is, theVersaTool Cultivatorturns the earth simply, quickly and effectively so that you can get planting! So spend less time digging, save your shoulders and back, and enjoy the fruits (and veggies!) of your labour.
